We, the Senior Class, are happy to present to you the 1954 Corinthian. We have tried in the following pages, to capture the spirit of Corinth-Holders High School, to put into permanent form the memories, the friendships, and the ideals which we shall cherish the rest of our lives.

We hope that in the years to come, each page of this Book may hold for you some small token of happiness from the days spent at your Alma Mater. It is with this in mind that the 1954 Corinthian is published.

In it we include:

DEDICATION

Hand in hand they helped to guide us
Through our happy high school days,
Mem'ries of them linger with us
As we go our separate ways.
We remember how they led
Our class to great success,
And encouraging words they said
To bring us happiness.
To show our thanks for what they've done
And for the love beneath,
We dedicate this Corinthian
To Mr. and Mrs. Heoth.

Many improvements to our school program and much additional equipment with which to work have been made possible by the Superintendent of Johnston County Schools, Mr. E. S. Simpson. Thank—yau, Mr. Simpson, for your help.

In deepest appreciation for the many fine services they rendered to our school, we pay tribute to the school committee. They are: Mrs. Billy Maare; Mr. Obie Hintan, Mr. Harvey Price, Chairman, Mr. Rupert Harris, and Mr. Esker Corbett, Sr.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

We, the Senior class of 1954, started on a journey in the fall of 1950. Our transportation was the "Train of Education." Our destination was graduation.

As we started out on our journey we had Miss Mary Louise Cook and Mr. Charles Corroll as our conductors. Although it sometimes became rough we made the first part of our journey successfully.

After having a very good time together we stopped for a rest in the spring of 1951.

In the fall of 1951 we started back on our journey. As we got aboard our train we found that we had two new conductors, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Heath.

We got along very fine during this part of our journey because we were better acquainted with high school. We stopped for another short rest in the spring of 1952.

In the fall we set out on our journey again. With the help of our conductors, Mr. and Mrs. Heath, we got a very fine start during the third lap of our journey. We presented a play, "Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost." We also honored the Seniors with a banquet at the Cherry Hotel in Wilson. We had a very successful magazine campaign this year.

We stopped again for another short rest. In the fall of 1953 we continued on the last mile of our journey and also the most important one. We found that we had another new conductor, Mrs. Clio Vann. We could hardly realize that we were so near the end of our long journey.

We knew that the last part of our journey was going to be a busy one so we started working with a strong determination to have a successful year. We began working on our annual as soon as was possible. Although it was hard work, we enjoyed it, and feel that it was worth the work. Then we selected our class ring. Later on we presented a class play and went to a Junior-Senior Banquet in our honor. We were nearing the end of our journey.

Now that our journey is ending, we are sad because we know that we must part from our fellow travelers and conductors with whom we have become very well acquainted. As we reach our destination, we realize that the conclusion of this journey is merely the beginning of many more important ones for which we hope we are prepared.

CLASS POEM

In a schoolroom long ago we met,
To begin o coreer we'll ne'er forget;
Our heorts ond minds were united together
By o closs spirit and love for each other.

This closs spirit guided us through strife,
Hardships, joys and thrills of school life;
Then come our motto, lived up to by all:
"United we stand; divided we fall."

We express deep thanks to teachers dear,
Who so patiently guided us year by year,
Sharing with us our heortoches and sorrows,
Preparing us all for the lond of tomorrow.

And now when we must say good-bye,
We'll ne'er forget you, Oh Corinth-High,
With our friends and loved ones we must part,
But these memories we'll cherish in our hearts.

So os we leave this place to begin anew,
The work that the world has for us to do,
May God bless and keep safe forevermore,
This closs of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Four.

Class Poet

CLASS SONG

Sodness seems to come to us
And the teardrops slowly stort,
For we know the time hos come
When we must part.
Through the years we will recall
All the joys ond friendships nigh,
And the pleasant memories
At Corinth High.
We hove worked here for twelve long years,
With the teachers who helped us through,
But the time now has come
When we must say adieu.
Though this sad night means goodbye,
We will treasure with a sigh
And remember it fore'er,
Deor Corinth High.

CLASS PROPHECY

Graduation has come and gone. Time has passed quickly, but one cannot forget the days that used to be. As I reminisce during the time my French students are using for study, I think of my classmates, and their professions.

Just the other day I received a letter from a dear friend and classmate, the former NELL GODWIN. She told me that JOY RAE HINTON, ELLEN GREEN and PATRICIA BOYETTE have also become fine housewives.

I remember KENNETH WALL'S fine talent for singing, and it has carried him places. He now sings with the Arthur Godfrey show. NELSON WILDER manages the CBS Station at which ALICE PRICE is a secretary.

LARRY TIPPETT has his own business which manufactures buttons. I understand JEAN BARNES is his bookkeeper and accountant.

Speaking of business, HUGH HINTON, having majored in Pharmacy at U. N. C., operates the Hinton Drug Co. in Raleigh. Just around the corner from him, MAMIE and MILDRED BOYETTE run their exclusive dress shop. GLORIA FAYE CARROLL has her own hat shop nearby.

In the field of teaching, MARGIE PRICE is at Corinth-Holders teaching English. BETTY MAE FREEMAN teaches Commercial subjects and SHELBY FOWLER is physical education director. In the same school, Mr. O. C. Freeman has retired and GLENN MOORE has taken his place as principal.

GARNER ANDREWS and MARVIN BOYKIN operate Trailway Bus Lines. Their competitor, incidentally, is WELDON TIPPETT in the Greyhound business.

In the air, WYATT EASON and GRADY THOMASSON are pilots; AUDREY MOONEYHAM and MAMIE REE NARRON are stewardesses on their planes. Also in the field of travel, STEVEN RICHARDSON engineers a train on which DONALD BOYETTE is a conductor. THOMAS DAVIS and JIMMY DOAN resorted to submarines.

RODNEY BROWN and FAYE BRINKLEY have taken over the "I Love Lucy" Show. They have made an even greater hit than Lucille Ball and Desi Arnez. ERNESTINE COOKE is chief photographer for the New York Times and YVONNE BARHAM is her assistant. CRAIG MURPHY is circulation manager of the paper, and BOBBY BAILEY is a wonderful cartoon artist. RUDEAN ATKINSON and PEGGY GODWIN are typists on a paper in a neighboring city.

On the political side, RONALD HOCUTT, JR. is running for a position in the House of Representatives, and JESSE MURPHREY is his campaign manager. HAROLD NARRON was recently elected Vice-President of the United States. I can recall when he served so faithfully for years as vice-president of our class.

My pondering must come to a close, for the bell is ringing and my third period French class will be coming in. My ambition is to be able to give the children I teach something to help them reach goals as high as those attained by members of the Class of 1954.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1954 of Corinth-Holders High School, being of sound minds and a little tired from our strenuous work during the last four years in high school, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament through which we hope to justly distribute the following among our needy underclassmen.

ARTICLE I

To the faculty and principal, we leave our ambition to words and good conduct, with hopes they will never have another class like us.

ARTICLE II

To the Juniors we leave our front seats in chapel.

ARTICLE III

To the Sophomores we leave our cleverness and ability to tease the Freshmen.

ARTICLE IV

To the Freshmen we leave our hopes that they will someday accomplish the goal of being Seniors.

ARTICLE V

To the parents we leave our many thanks for the ways in which they have helped to make our school days happy.

ARTICLE VI

Rodney Brown bequeaths his "witty ways," to Archie Cooke.

Rudean Atkinson wills her "friendly ways" to Ponsy Gerner.

To Lorry Costleberry, Hugh Hinton wills his "cuteness."

Mamie Boyette wills her "quietness" to Shirley Skinner and Glenda Brown.

Nelson Wilder leaves his "handsome features" to Randolph Creech.

Faye Brinkley wills her height to Mary Rose Dupree.

To Lawrence Ellis, goes Morvin Boykin's "sportsmanship."

Nell Godwin's "winning way" goes to Normo Thompson and Peggy Boughmon.

Wyatt Eason bequeaths his "quiet ways" to Early Wilder to use in study hall.

To Betty Jo Johnson and Addie Lee Turner goes Mamie Ree Norron's "willingness to help if I can."

Craig Murphy seems to think all great men are tall, for this reason he wills his "height" to Bobby Johnson.

To Ann Medlin and Franceline Hinton, Patricia Boyette leaves her "sportsmanship."

Clayton Whitley wills his "laziness" to Roy Hinnant.

Glenn Moore's "neatness" goes to Philip Bornes.

To Janie Wilder, Martha Boughman wills her "leadership ability."

Our Helpers

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boyette who are responsible for the neat appearance of our buildings and grounds.

The ladies to whom we are indebted for the wholesome, delicious meals served in the lunchroom.

Mrs. Eotmon; Mrs. Davis; Mrs. Hocutt; Mrs. Bailey; dietitian; and Mrs. Johnson.

We pay tribute to our County Supervisors, Miss Rena King, Mrs. Eloise Eskridge, and Miss Louise Woodall. They have been a great help to our teachers this year.

The bus drivers who transport us safely to and from school each day are: Ray Harris, Ben Garner, Glenn Moore, Weldon Tippet, Marvin Baykin, Garner Andrews, Wilbur Michael, Hugh Hinton, Ray Lee Richardson, Larry Tippet and Jimmy Whitley.
